New Generation of Leadership Recognition

Do you know of any high school or college student who has done a remarkable thing in their community or school?

Montebello Youth Leadership Club wants to recognize them. The New Generation of Leadership Recognition recognizes outstanding young individuals who show that you are never too young to make a difference in your community or school. Montebello Youth Leadership Club recognizes a high school or college student every month.

A New Generation of Leadership recipient is a young person who makes an extraordinary mark in their community or school through service, leadership roles, and involvement. The nominee's achievements must demonstrate one or more of the following characteristics:

- Outstanding service in their community or school
- Shown to be an outstanding leader
- Shown to be a youth advocate

If you know someone who fits these characteristics fill out the nomination form.
